NOTICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGES' RULING

TO ALL PARTIES OF INTEREST:

Notice is hereby given by the Administrative Law Judges of the following requirements and procedures that are in place in preparation for the evidentiary hearing and the remainder of this docket:

- 1) All parties are directed to cooperate and submit to the Administrative Law Judges by 12:00 PM June 18, 2012 a joint list of witnesses indicating on which day each witness is expected to testify and the anticipated duration of cross-examination of each witness by each party.
- 2) For any witness for whom no party has any questions, parties are reminded to ask the Administrative Law Judges whether they have any questions for such a witness before planning to admit that witness' testimony via affidavit.
- 3) When testimony is to be offered in conjunction with an affidavit, if the affidavit is not already part of the witness' testimony, the affidavit must be identified as an exhibit as well.
- 4) With regard to any witness that has any non-substantive corrections to their testimony, parties are advised to simply submit an errata rather than file a motion for leave to correct the errors. In the event that any corrections are made to testimony prior to the evidentiary hearing, a corrected version of the testimony must either be (a) filed on e-Docket or (b) brought to the evidentiary hearing.
- 5) On the first day of the evidentiary hearing, each party must provide a list of the exhibits it intends to offer into the record. If an exhibit was filed on e-Docket, the date on which it was filed and an indication of whether it is a corrected, revised, or confidential exhibit must be provided as well. Cross exhibits that a party may offer at the evidentiary hearing need not be included on the list. Each party should be prepared to disseminate copies of its exhibit list to all other parties at the hearing. The exhibit list need not be filed on e-Docket.
- 6) With regard to any confidential designations, parties shall be prepared to explain/justify any such designations.

- 7) All parties are directed to cooperate and submit to the Administrative Law Judges by June 29, 2012 a joint proposed outline for use in the briefs. The outline shall reflect issues that have been resolved as well as those that remain contested. If it is not obvious what a particular entry on the outline represents, a note shall be included indicating what is intended.
- 8) With regard to any witness that has had only a portion of his/her testimony stricken, the remaining testimony shall be resubmitted as a revised document retaining the line numbers associated with the stricken testimony. For each blank area, an appropriate notation shall be made indicating that the space is intentionally left blank following the striking of the offered testimony

Sincerely,

Elizabeth A. Rolando
Chief Clerk
